

Quilters' Guild of Acadiana

Policies and Procedures

COMMITTEE: Cultural Outreach and Preservation Committee

Purpose:

To identify ways that QGA members can get involved in local culture and increase awareness of our guild.

Procedures:

Chairperson is appointed by the President with a suggestion of a one-year commitment. An extension can be approved by the board. Chairperson will give a monthly report at the meeting explaining new projects that members could work on and a follow-up report on the work that has been done. This information will also be printed in the monthly newsletter.

Committee Membership Procedures:

- Organizing the documentation of quilts in collaboration with projects such as the Quilt Index and Louisiana Quilt Documentation Project
- Design and donate locally relevant custom quilts to qualifying events/cultural centers
- Organize demonstrations for local events
- Identify opportunities for ongoing community outreach (e.g. - Artwalk)
- Organize events for showcasing guild talent such as quilt shows
- Organize and archive historical guild records
- Research and disseminate information on the cultural context of quilting in Louisiana
